

World Holiday and Travel Fair Bucket List

World Holiday and Travel Fair

16 – 18 April 2010 at the Coca Cola Dome

September 2009

The buzz word on everybody's lips these days is how to create a bucket list. You've seen the movie with Jack Nicolson and Morgan Freeman – "Bucket List" - and you know what it is all about, but where do you start? One suggestion is to make your way to the World Holiday and Travel Fair (WHTF), proudly presented by International Banking from Absa, taking place at the Coca Cola Dome in Johannesburg from 16 – 18 April 2010.

Synonymous with enjoying unforgettable experiences, exploring that ideal hideaway spot, discovering places to unwind or destinations to push the limits of adventure, the WHTF is sure to add to your bucket list.

The objective of WHTF is to bring affordable travel options to all South Africans and provide a world of travel and holiday choices for the whole family. Visitors will be able to see the world in a single venue and experience international hospitality to entice them to, literally, "travel the globe". They will benefit from special deals, packages and discounts from the amazing travel offerings on display. Even more exciting is that the fair will provide travelers a platform and facilities to book and pay for their holiday adventures on the spot!

From captivating tours just across our borders to exquisite and exotic places halfway across the world, the fair will have the whole family picturing themselves on white sandy beaches, in Middle Eastern deserts, lush jungles or busy European cities. Visitors will be thrilled at the travel possibilities on offer at the exhibition.

It's never too early or too late to create a bucket list. So whether you are 10 or 80, use the WHTF for inspiration and for guidelines on how to get the creative juices flowing and start crossing items off your list!
